Kaci Stewart is a passionate worship leader, songwriter, and recording artist. She is the pastor of worship and arts at citylife church in Tampa, FL where she and her husband, Tony, serve as the Senior Pastors of the dynamic, 3,500 member multi-racial, multi-generational church. An alumnus of Lee University, Kaci has served in full time music ministry for over 10 years. Additionally, she and her husband host a weekly television program, citylife TV, broadcast on CTN.

Kaci has been on a pursuit for His presence since an early age. After singing her first solo at the age of five and growing up in a Pastor's home, she began sensing a calling to minister to people through the power of music.

Realizing that true transformation comes in His presence, Kaci is passionate about leading people to find Him....the One who is unlimited in all things. She longs to connect people to the heart of the Father through worship.

Kaci's deep passion for God and her sincere heart of worship is expressed in her debut project entitled, You Are God.
